The OSGA 55+ (Ontario Senior Games Association) provides the following support systems to Districts to access at no cost:

Training Modules: Consisting of 4 modules (Governance, Games Operations, Finance and Marketing/Promotion) are an excellent training opportunity for new and/or established committees to learn new ways to enhance district operations.

Open Information Sessions: The OSGA 55+ Program Manager and/or Board member will come to your District to do a presentation about the association as well as your local District to encourage new volunteers/participants on how they can become involved.
