OSGA 2022-2023 Registration Open

District events are on now!

Most Districts have been working very hard to put together qualifying events for the Ontario 55+ Games this summer in Peterborough. If you are interested in attending this event then please make sure you are checking in with your local Districts now. Some events have already begun and others are starting in the near future.

Check your District page on the OSGA website to see if there is any updated information. If there is not, try reaching out to your District directly.

We are excited to welcome you back when you are ready!

get an accurate number of steps each month. Simply check your data and send in your total number to be entered into the contest each month.

Office Hours

The OSGA office is available from 10 am - 3 pm daily to assist you.
The best way to ensure your inquiries get answered is to send an e-mail to the office. If we need to discuss items over the phone we can then set up a time that works for all parties.

Please note the office will be closed from May 6 and will be back to normal operations on May 16th. If you require immediate assistance then please reach out to the OSGA President or Vice-President. Thank you!
